

FACES OF AUSTIN

Multimedia Program

Reflecting Austin's reputation as a high-tech leader and as a city rich in cultural vitality, FACES OF AUSTIN is a cutting-edge cultural and civic project through which Austin-area filmmakers are showcased and their works on Austin art, music, film, heritage, and culture come alive via electronic format at Austin City Hall.

Selections are available to watch on-demand on the widescreen video displays in the City Hall Atrium. The films can also be seen on Channel 6 and on the web.

For more information about FACES OF AUSTIN, visit our website:

www.ci.austin.tx.us/redevelopment/austinfaces.htm

SAVE THE DATE!

Faces of Austin

will release the next
Call for Entries in August 2010!

Check the website in August
(www.ci.austin.tx.us/redevelopment/austinfaces)
for complete submission criteria.

Also in August 2010
Filmmakers Information Meeting:
Come hear about the selection and submission process!

Submissions due January 2011!

Faces of Austin

multimedia program

2010 Collection Premiere Screening

February 19, 2010
Austin City Hall

Faces of Austin is a program of the City of Austin
Cultural Arts Division with Channel 6

Faces of Austin

multimedia program

at Austin City Hall

February 19, 2010

City Council Chambers

5:30 p.m. - Films from Group A

6:00 p.m. - Films from Groups A & B

7:10 p.m. - Filmmaker Q&A

7:30 p.m. - Films from Group B

Group A first film begins at 5:30 p.m. and 6:00 p.m.

Susan & Rob Burneson

A Community Mosaic

An introduction to the Austin neighborhoods of Crestview and Brentwood, past and present. (12:30)

Jennifer Malin

The Farm Next Door

Harvest time at a residential farm which provides fresh produce to 20 local families. (5:00)

Jennifer Malin

Capoeira Luanda

Capoeiristas, practitioners of the Afro-Brazilian martial art, play together and discuss what capoeira means to them. (2:00)

Louisiana Kreutz

Springed Migration

A group of friends are faced with a question: how do you move an old, rusty trampoline that won't come apart? (10:00)

Group B first film begins at 6:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Araceli Jaime & James Ruiz

FEAST

A portrait-in-motion of the faces and places of East Austin. (4:44)

Debbie Eynon Finley

Humble Trash

Stories of home owners who find creative uses for junk, including the Museum of Ephemerata and Cathedral of Junk. (18:00)

Johnny Ramirez

Maneja Beto "Ofrendas"

Spanish-language indie rock video, capturing cultural diversity in East and Downtown Austin. (5:00)

Rose Saenz

Peter & Smiley

The struggles faced by a boy and the couple who wants to adopt him. (8:30)

